

Morning Prayer

God, my shepherd, I don't need a thing;
You will take care of everything I need.
Your generosity is exceedingly great.
Help me to not worry but instead to pray.
Every detail in my life of love for you is worked into something good.
May a sense of Your wholeness,
everything coming together for good,
come and settle me down.

Original material; copyright protected.