

Be Lifted Up

♩ = 135

Inspired by Psalms 55, 56 & 57

Words & Music by Connie R. Smith

Verses 1. I am wear - y from dis - stress. — All day and night I groan and cry. But
2. When the bat - tle 'round me rag - es - God the Lord will ran - som me. -
3. I praise God for what He pro - mised. Yes, I will praise Him for His Word. I
4. When I am a - fraid or wor - ried - I will put my trust in You. Be -

I will call up - on the Lord For my God will sure - ly hear my voice.
He will send forth help from hea - ven, dis - grac - ing all my en - em - ies trust in God, why should I fear? What — can mere peo - ple do to me?
neath the sha - dow of Your wings I will hide un - til the dan - ger's passed.

All my sad - ness and my sor - rows; You keep track and count each one. To God sends His un - fail - ing love. His love is high - er than the heav'ns. -
You have res - cued me from death, God. You have kept my foot - steps sure. Now My heart is se - cure in You. O God, my heart can - not be moved. To You I give my cares and woes. I know that You will care for me.

He sends forth His faith - ful - ness that reach - es up in - to the clouds.
in Your pre - sence I can walk And in Your light I live with You.
You I bring my thanks and praise And sing of You to ev' - ry - one.

Refrain: Be lift - ed up, O Lord our God. Far a - bove the high - est heav'n. Be lift - ed up, O Lord our God. May Your glo - ry shine o'er all the earth.

INDNJC

CCLI Song No. 7215462